FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD OFFERS TWO ARTS AND CRAFTS CLASSES

The University of San Diego's Continuing Education Department is offering two arts and crafts classes open to both students and the general public.

Stichery For Today, designed to explore the interrelationships of fabrics, yarns and stitches, will be held on six consecutive Wednesdays, beginning February 7, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The last session will be March 14.

The class will be directed by Edna Kline. Cost for the six sessions is $25. Classes will be held in Founders Hall, Rm. 151.

Stained Glass, which will introduce students and hobbyists to the art of designing and producing stained-glass, will be held on eight consecutive Tuesdays, starting February 13 and running through April 3. The classes begin at 7 p.m. and end at 9:30 p.m. Classes will be held in Camino Hall, Rm. 113.

Craftsman Bill Hall will direct the lessons. Cost for the eight sessions is $20, with an additional $25 estimated for supplies.

Information about either class is available by calling the USD Continuing Education Department at 291-6480, ext. 4318.
