FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ART EXHIBIT SET AT USD, FEB. 12

The University of San Diego Fine Arts Department will sponsor an exhibition of original etchings, woodcuts and lithographs on Monday, February 12, from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., in the school's Founder's Gallery.

The works, by such artists as Durer, Rouault, Hogarth, Picasso, Hiroshige, Magritte, and contemporary artists, have been made available to the university from the Davidson Galleries of Seattle, Washington.

The exhibit will feature hundreds of art pieces, and will be available for sale. Most of the collection is priced under $100.

"We want to give students and the community an opportunity to see a wide variety of high caliber original graphics," notes Terry Whitcomb, Professor of Art at USD. "This kind of exhibit gives people a chance to start or add to their personal collections at a very reasonable price."
