ATHEISM TO BE DEBATED AT USD SEMINAR, APRIL 27

"The Presumption of Atheism" will be the subject of a debate at the University of San Diego's Salomon Lecture Hall on Friday, April 27, at 8 p.m.

The antagonists will be Anthony C.N. Flew, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Reading, England, and James F. Ross, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Pennsylvania.

Flew has gained world-wide recognition as a defender of philosophical atheism. Ross is known for his use of linguistic techniques to defend the rationality of belief in God.

The program is sponsored by the USD College of Arts and Sciences, and is designed to involve USD faculty, students, alumni and community leaders with national experts in the pursuit of intellectual and curriculum enrichment.

The debate is open to the public at no charge. For more information, call 291-6480, extension 4271.
