FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD EDUCATOR PUBLISHES EVALUATION GUIDE

Dr. Edward F. DeRoche, Dean of the University of San Diego's School of Education, has published "An Administrator's Guide for Evaluating Programs and Personnel."

The 274-page work is published by Allyn and Bacon, Inc., of Boston, and is intended as a "desk-side reference for elementary and secondary school administrators involved in evaluations." It contains more than 75 checklists, inventories, and questionnaires necessary for the evaluation of school administrative functions.

A native of Connecticut, Dr. DeRoche received his M.S. from Eastern Connecticut State University in Elementary Education, and his Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut in Curriculum/Administration.

Dr. DeRoche is one of the founders and leading advocates of the use of newspapers to teach subjects such as reading, social studies, and English in elementary and secondary schools. He is the author of a book on this topic, "Project Update." The USD Dean is also a consultant to the American Newspapers Publishers Association.
