FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWENTY-NINE INDUCTED INTO
BETA GAMMA SIGMA AT USD

Twenty-nine charter members were inducted into the newly installed University of San Diego Chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma the national business scholastic honorary fraternity at an installation dinner recently aboard the Reuben E. Lee. Dean Allan R. Bailey of San Diego State University represented the national organization.

The first honorary member inducted as a charter member was San Diego businessman, Larry Lawrence, chairman of the Del Coronado Corporation. Mr. Lawrence, a member of the USD Business School Advisory Board, spoke to the group on the positive future of USD. He emphasized that USD's fully accredited School of Business is prepared to fill the growing community need for a second major school of business in San Diego.

USD became eligible to form a Beta Gamma Sigma chapter once the undergraduate program was accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). There are approximately 153 chapters nationwide and membership is based on scholastic achievement and high moral character. The major criteria are: juniors must be in the top five percent of their class; seniors in the top ten percent; and MBA-candidates in the top twenty percent of their graduating class. Faculty must have completed three years of full-time business school faculty members.

In addition to Larry Lawrence, the following were installed as charter members of the USD Chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma: Faculty: Robert F. O'Neil, Ph.D.; Charles F. Holt, Ph.D.; Fred R. Bahr, Ph.D.; and Paul R. Gardner, M.A. Juniors: Mark C. Lehberg, Kerry D. Barnsley, Craig D. Swanson, Chris D. Jenkins. Seniors, 1979-80: Jil T. Goebel, Andrew Kozlowski, Lucia A. Hammerich, Carrie A. Galvin. Seniors 1980-81: Suzanne K. Beggs, Ellen Economou, John M. Baumgardner, Edward A. Mendis, Janis P. Rocha, Helen M. Finneran, John P. Galvin, Rosanne C. Sinclair, Carol M. Di Stefano. MBA's 1979-80: Douglas C. O'Donovan, E. Sa B. Pereira. MBA's 1980-81: Albert W. Tang, Stephen To, Jon T. Wilcox, Susan J. Wilcox, Robert T. Wheeler, Jr.
