"SAN DIEGO PERSPECTIVES ON THE LAW OF THE SEA" TO BE HELD AT USD

"San Diego Perspectives on the Law of the Sea" headlines a day of speakers and symposia scheduled for the University of San Diego School of Law on April 24 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Grace Courtroom.

Slated to make presentations are: Congressman Paul McCloskey, a member of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee; Roger Revelle, Scripps Institution of Oceanography; August Felando of the American Tuna Association; Conrad Welling of Ocean Minerals Corporation; and Bernard Oxman, U.S. delegate to the Law of the Sea Conference.

Participants will focus on mining, fishing, oceanographic research, and on negotiations of the Law of the Sea Conference held in New York City.

Sponsors of USD's "Law of the Sea Day" include the International Law Society, USD Chapter; USD's Student Bar Association; the Law Students Division of the American Bar Association; USD Associated Student Body; World Affairs Council; the United Nations Association; and USD's College of Arts and Sciences.

The public is invited to attend at no charge. Seating is limited. Reservations made by made through the USD School of Law, 714/291-6480, extension 4326.
