FRIEDMAN, NUNEZ TO SPEAK IN USD LAW ALUMNI LECTURE SERIES

C. Hugh Friedman, professor of law at the University of San Diego School of Law, and Peter K. Nunez, U.S. Attorney designate, will be featured speakers in the July 16 and August 6 sessions of the USD Law Alumni Association summer lecture series.

The practice-oriented series is offered free of charge and is held at noon in the auditorium of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, 101 Ash St. Participants are asked to bring a brown bag lunch; coffee will be served.

Friedman, speaking on July 16, will address the topic "Assisting Clients in Choosing the Appropriate Business Entity." A graduate of Yale University and Stanford Law School, Friedman has served as State deputy attorney general, director of the London Institute on International and Comparative Law, and as consultant to the American Bar Association. He is a judge pro tem of the San Diego Municipal Court.

Nunez, appearing August 6, will speak on "New Dimensions of Federal Law Enforcement." Currently Assistant U.S. Attorney, Southern District of California, Nunez is also Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney. Graduate of the USD law school and Duke University, Nunez received the U.S. Attorney General's Special Commendation Award in 1979.

Additional information on the lecture series and other USD School of Law events may be obtained by calling 291-6480, ext. 4358.
