FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"EDUCATING TODAY'S CHILD FOR TOMORROW'S WORLD"

TOPIC OF EDUCATOR UPDATE MAY 19

"Educating Today's Child for Tomorrow's World" is the topic of the final seminar in the "UPDATE for Educators" series held at the University of San Diego, Thursday, May 19 from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. in Camino Lounge.

Sponsored by the USD School of Education and Continuing Education, "UPDATE for Educators" focuses on aspects of education important to teachers, administrators, and counselors in the San Diego area. Registration is $10 per seminar and includes presentation, materials, parking and a wine and cheese reception. For information and registration call 293-4585.

Hank Koehn, vice president, Security Pacific Bank, known for his presentations in the field of futures research, will lead the seminar addressing how schools are educating today's child for tomorrow's world and what one can do to make learning for tomorrow a reality. Computers, the changing American family, and technological advancements in the work environment are included in the discussion.
