FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD'S UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE SCHEDULED FOR SENIORS, JULY 12 TO AUGUST 11

The University of San Diego's special program for senior citizens, The University of the Third Age, will begin its summer session on July 12 and continue each Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to noon until August 11.

The five week program for persons over the age of 55 will be held in the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing for the lecture series and at the Sports Center for the Physical Fitness programs. Students must be able to provide their own transportation and be in reasonably good health. The fee is $50. For information and reservations, contact Sr. Marlene Brasefield at USD's Office of Continuing Education, 619-293-4585.

A speaker at the opening session on Tuesday, July 12, Evelyn Herrmann, Chief of Senior Citizens for the City of San Diego says of the program, "In my opinion, the University of the Third Age offers our senior citizens an opportunity to expand their horizons...an opportunity that would not be available elsewhere."

Topics on the U3A program include politics, addiction, depression, medical care, equality, patient's rights, annuities, tax planning, stained glass, law enforcement in San Diego, and literature. In addition to USD faculty members, program speakers include Rita King, San Diego County Schools; Evelyn Herrmann, Chief of Senior Citizens for the City of San Diego; Dennis Hart, Executive Director, National Conference of Christians and Jews; David Gorsich, tax consultant; Norm Stemper, Special Assistant to the San Diego Chief of Police; and Celia Ballesteros, Attorney.
