SPECIAL TO THE TUSTIN NEWS

release upon receipt

AREA RESIDENTS AMONG UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO GRADUATES

Six Tustin and Santa Ana residents were among the 1,082 men and women graduating May 22 from the University of San Diego, a private Catholic university enrolling 5,000 students in its College of Arts and Sciences, School of Graduate and Continuing Education, and four professional schools in business administration, education, law, and nursing.

Graduating summa cum laude among the six was Susan Ann Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean of Santa Ana. A graduate of Foothill High School, Tustin, Dean was a Roon Scholar at USD, was named to Kappa Gamma Pi, the National Catholic Honor Society, was a member of the Accounting Honor Society, and holds the B.B.A. in Accounting. She will join the staff of Price Waterhouse, San Diego, in September.

Other area graduates were James P. Accurso, Santa Ana, with a B.B.A. in Accounting; Sharon Ann Dudek, Tustin, B.B.A. in Business Administration; Mary Christine Hilsabeck, Santa Ana, B.A. in Diversified Liberal Arts; Therese Ann Melvin, Tustin, cum laude with a baccalaureate in Diversified Liberal Arts; and David H. Forstadt, son of Marvin Forstadt of Tustin, with a Juris Doctor degree from the School of Law.
