FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPDATE FOR EDUCATORS CONTINUES AT USD WITH "REAL WORLD READING ACTIVITIES"--NOV. 10

"Real World Reading Activities," the second seminar in the series of UPDATE for Educators, will be held on Thursday, November 10.

Presented by the University of San Diego's School of Continuing Education and Education, the program is designed to give educators the opportunity to interact with each other and to learn about the newest information and techniques applicable in today's educational environment.

Advanced registration is encouraged as space is limited. Single session cost is $10; full series, $30; and group rate (five or more), is $20 for the series. Seminars run from 4:15 to 6:00 p.m. Each session includes all seminar materials and free parking. To register by phone, call 239-4586.

Dr. Edward DeRoche, Ph.D., Dean, School of Education, USD, and Robert L. Infantino, Ed.D., Director of Teaching Education, USD, and Director of San Diego Area Writing Project, recently published a book of over three hundred individual and group activities for teachers and learners, many of which they will share with participants in the workshop conducted at USD, Camino Lounge, Camino Hall.
