SPECIAL TO THE DENVER POST

AREA RESIDENTS TO BE GUESTS AT UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO EVENTS

Alumni, parents, and friends of the University of San Diego will gather on January 12 at the Cherry Hills Country Club to hear USD president Author E. Hughes discuss the university, campus development, and plans for the future.

First event of the day will be a luncheon hosted by Denver resident William DeLine for members of the USD President's Club, premier support group of the independent Catholic university.

The luncheon will be followed by an evening reception from 7:30 to 9 p.m., also at the country club, for USD alumni, parents, and other persons interested in the San Diego university.

Dr. Hughes and members of the University Relations staff will be present at both events.

The University of San Diego currently enrolls 5,200 students in its undergraduate College of Arts and Sciences, School of Graduate and Continuing Education, and professional schools of business administration, education, law, and nursing.
