UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO TO HOST RECEPTIONS FOR ORANGE COUNTY RESIDENTS

Residents of Orange County living near Fullerton, Whittier, and Newport Beach and who have sons and daughters enrolled at the University of San Diego will be the guests of the university at a series of special receptions during February.

Fullerton area parents are invited to attend the reception on February 9, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deno Vaccher. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jackson will host the February 16 reception in Whittier, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Markel's home will be opened to USD parents in Newport Beach on February 21.

On hand for each reception will be representatives of the university, including William L. Pickett, Ph.D., USD vice president for university relations; Timothy J. Willard, director of development; and Sister Virginia McMonagle, RSCJ, director of parent relations. Guests will see a special videotape film about the university, its programs, and its recent campus expansion, which includes the construction of three new facilities.

The University of San Diego is an independent, Roman Catholic institution enrolling 5,129 students in its undergraduate College of Arts and Sciences, School of Graduate and Continuing Education, and professional schools in business, law, education, and nursing.
