FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACCOUNTING AND ECONOMIC CONCEPTS SERIES

FOR ATTORNEYS SCHEDULED AT USD

The University of San Diego School of Law in cooperation with Certified Public Accountants Steres, Alpert, and Carne will hold a series of four workshops in March and April in The Douglas F. Manchester Executive Conference Center. The series is designed to provide attorneys with a working knowledge and understanding of accounting and economic applications, statistical applications for the legal profession and other specialized services. For information and reservations call 293-4585.

The schedule of workshops follows:

Fridays, March 23 & 30, "Accounting Concepts for Lawyers," a two-part workshop to familiarize lawyers with accounting practices and provide them with a basic knowledge of generally accepted accounting principles and auditing standards as they apply in specific circumstances. Part 1, March 23, 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., $85 (includes luncheon, refreshments, and materials). Part 2, March 30, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., $35 (includes refreshments and materials). Fee for Parts 1 and 2, $110. The workshop is led by the Special Litigation Section of Steres, Alpert and Carne.

Friday, April 6, "Overview of Personal Injury, Wrongful Death, and Other Earnings Loss Situations," to assist the lawyer in evaluating lost earnings situations, calculating the damages, presenting the damages in court and questioning/evaluating the testimony of other experts. Instructors are Oliver Galbraith III, Ph.D., professor of management at San Diego State University, a statistician and a management consultant and Robert Wallace, C.P.A., a graduate of Wharton School of Finance and partner with Steres, Alpert and Carne.

Friday April 13, "Examination of Questioned Documents," including methods to detect forged initials on wills, incorrect dating, additions and alterations, forged holographic wills, cut-and-paste photocopies, and forged signatures. 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Instructor, Nanette G. Galbraith, B.S., is certified by the American Board of Forensic Document Examiners and is in private practice in San Diego. Fee, $45, includes refreshments and materials.

Friday, April 27, "What Does 'Statistics' Do for the Attorney," a workshop to demonstrate to the attorney the need for statistics and statistical analysis in many of the cases headed for the courtroom. Instructor, Oliver Galbraith III, Ph.D. 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Fee, $50, includes refreshments and materials.

Series Moderator Arthur Brodshatzer, D.B.A., C.P.A. is a partner with the accounting firm of Steres, Alpert and Carne, specializing in accounting, auditing and litigation support services. Brodshatzer has served as an "expert witness" involving economic and accounting matters. He is a professor of accounting at San Diego State University and a frequent lecturer in continuing legal education courses.
