release upon receipt

The Douglas F. Manchester Executive Conference Center, the University of San Diego's premier conference setting and new home for the School of Continuing Education, was opened officially on February 26 with dedication ceremonies.

The two-story, 16,500-square-foot facility was designed by architects Tucker, Sadler & Associates and constructed by M. H. Golden Company. Leadership gift for the project came from USD trustee and major San Diego developer Douglas F. Manchester, chairman and chief executive officer of Torrey Enterprises.
