Dear Ms. Murray:

I am writing in response to our telephone conversation last week regarding the publicity service available for events scheduled at the University of San Diego. Your willingness to take care of publicity (i.e. all radio and newspaper announcements) is completely satisfactory to the board members of the local chapter of the American Harp Society. Once again, this concert is sponsored by the Music Department at U.S.D. so we understand that your service is offered free of charge.

Enclosed is a brief summary outlining some general information about the concert January 20th. Please feel free to use it when distributing press releases for radio stations and newspapers. The harp society is assuming all responsibilities for distributing flyers, making programs, and printing and selling tickets.

I will have photographs of Anne Adams available for you, if desired, at a later date. Please feel free to contact me any time. I am usually home in the late afternoon. I would also like a specific list of what stations and publications you will be contacting so that we do not cross paths. At this point, however, we are gratefully leaving everything up to you.

Sincerely,

Ann E. Gianola
