BACKGROUND

The justices from the California Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One, will present an indepth program on the state appellate process, highlighted by presentations on the protection of one's rights on appeal; the perfection of an appeal; the preparation of appellate briefs; and effective appellate oral advocacy. In addition, there will be a full discussion of court procedures in general and the writ process, as well as a panel discussion on the decision-making process. Associate Justice Joseph R. Grodin of the California Supreme Court will speak on how the Supreme Court selects cases for review and give insight on how to best present a petition for hearing.

The panel will consist of Presiding Justice Gerald Brown, Associate Justices Robert O. Staniforth, Howard B. Wiener, Don R. Work, Edward T. Butler and Gerald J. Lewis, Mary Eikel, senior writs attorney; and Gordon Cologne, associate justice (ret.), moderator of counsel, Dale and Lloyd.
