BARBARA MENDELSON NAMED NEW
USD LAW SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR

Barbara Mendelson has been appointed as assistant director for programming, law development and alumni relations at the University of San Diego Law School.

Mendelson will assist Law School Development and Alumni Relations Director Elizabeth Stroube in fundraising, alumni activities, special events and press relations.

Mendelson was promoted to the newly created position after spending two years as Stroube's senior secretary.

Before joining the university, Mendelson was the San Diego County press relations officer for Sen. Gary Hart's presidential campaign, community relations officer at Western International University in Phoenix, and a CBS Television News production coordinator in New York and Washington, D.C.

She also was a CBS production assistant at the Democratic National Conventions in Chicago and Miami. For one year, she taught self-contained eighth grade at Harvard-St. George School in Chicago.

Mendelson, a resident of Poway, holds a bachelor's in English and Literature from The American University in Washington, D.C.
