INTERSESSION COURSES
RUN JAN. 6-24

Intersession at the University of San Diego will run from Jan. 6 through Jan. 24.

Courses will be offered by the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business Administration and the School of Education.

The program "is an opportunity for students to take general education and enrichment courses that we don't normally teach during the regular semesters," said Dr. Ray Brandes, Dean, School of Graduate and Continuing Education.

"Intersession also offers students who have difficulty with a particular subject to do nothing but concentrate on one course," he added.

A maximum of four units can be taken during intersession.

Undegraduates who qualify may register on a pass/fail basis for one intersession course.

The intersession office is in Room 108, Founders Hall. For more information, please call 260-4800.
