USD FRATERNITY HITS
THE WATER TO HELP FELLOW STUDENTS

USD's Sigma Chi fraternity organizes fundraiser for critically injured student

This was supposed to be the time of her life, but instead USD freshman Sheryll Stillwell is fighting for her life. But she is not fighting alone.

USD's Sigma Chi Fraternity and the USD Surf are holding a "Surf for Her" fundraiser to help pay for Stillwell's medical expenses as a result of a tragic auto accident. The three-hour fundraising surf party is scheduled for Friday, October 12 at South Mission Beach. The students hope to raise $3,000.

Stillwell, a 19-year-old resident of Upland, Calif., suffered a punctured lung and a blood clot in her brain as a result of the August 24 accident, which occurred as the students were returning from Tijuana. She is currently in a coma, receiving round-the-clock care at Scripps Memorial Hospital in La Jolla.

For more information, please contact USD students Scott Duffy or Mike Hannum at 488-1832, or USD's Public Relations Office at 260-4681.
