USD SYMPHONY IN CONCERT OCTOBER 21

Featuring guitarist Lisa Smith

The University of San Diego Symphony Orchestra will perform at 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 21 in USD's Camino Theatre.

Conducted by Dr. Henry Kolar, the orchestra will perform Sinfonia #1 in G Major by Jan Vorisek and "An Hommage to Josef Haydn by French Composers" (Dukas, Ravel and Debussy).

USD faculty member Lisa Smith will be featured soloist performing Concerto #1 in D Major by Castelnuovo-Tedesco -- one of the best known guitar concertos of the 20th Century.

Smith was Grand Prize winner in the 1987 Carmel Music Society Instrumental Competition. It was the first time in the history of the competition that a guitarist was awarded first prize. She recently returned from a concert tour in Europe and also concertizes regularly as a soloist in the United States and Canada.

Admission to the Oct. 21 concert is $5 general, $3 seniors and $2 students.

For more information, please call the USD Fine Arts Department at 260-4600, Ext. 4486, or Dr. Kolar at Ext. 4426.
