CHA GUO JUN - MYSTIC WORLD SERIES

November 6 through December 9
Monday through Friday
12:30 p.m. through 5:30 p.m.

Cha Guo Jun is one of China's foremost contemporary painters. A native of Suzhou, he studied at the Shanghai Academy where he graduated with top honors. Currently, he is an instructor at the College of Fine Arts in Shanghai and a visiting scholar at the University of Minnesota.

The oil paintings in this exhibition are densely textured with rich and luminous color. Powerful, majestic, and mysterious, they reflect both the abstract expressionism of the West and the calligraphy of the East.

Cha Guo Jun's paintings hang in the Chinese Consulate General's office and in the United Nations in New York City as well as the Shanghai Museum and many important private collections. He explains his work by saying, "The created image is different from the natural world -- it is form given to a mental vision, it is substance given to the human soul."

An opening reception for the artist will take place in Founders Gallery on Tuesday, November 5 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.
