CHORAL SCHOLARS IN CONCERT

The University of San Diego Department of Music presents the Choral Scholars in Concert Thursday, November 29 and Saturday, December 1 at the French Parlor, Founders Hall, USD. The Thursday concert begins at 12:15 p.m. and is free of charge. The Saturday concert is set for 8 p.m. and tickets are $8, general; $5, students and seniors.

The Choral Scholars is a select ensemble in which students of high academic accomplishment and exceptional vocal ability and background are given the opportunity to develop and enhance their vocal skills and techniques while serving as ambassadors for the University. They perform a varied repertoire that ranges from Renaissance madrigals to choral arrangements of popular music. For more information about the program, log on to www.sandiego.edu/choralscholars.
