USD APPOINTS EIGHT NEW FACULTY TO COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
FOR RELEASE WEEK OF AUGUST 21, 1978.

Dr. C. Joseph Pusateri, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences of the University of San Diego, announces the appointment of eight new faculty members, seven of which hold Ph.D.'s, who will begin teaching this Fall.

Paul Woodson, Ph.D. and Assistant Professor, will teach Biology. He earned his B.A. and Ph.D. at UCSD and was a Post-Doctoral Fellow in the Department of Psychiatry at UCSD. Woodson is listed in the 1977 issue of "Who's Who in Science in the Western United States" and has guest lectured at Laval University in Canada, the University of Pittsburgh, UCSD and USD.

Assistant Professor Stacy G. Langton, Ph.D., will teach Mathematics.
She received her B.A. with honors from the California Institute of Technology and her A.M. and Ph.D. from Harvard University. Langton was Assistant Professor at the University of Michigan and has taught a televised course for employees of various corporations.

A new appointee to the English Department is Assistant Professor Barton D. Thurber, Ph.D., whose specialty is English and American literature since 1800. Thurber received Highest Honors in English from Stanford University and received his A.M. and Ph.D., from Harvard University. Thurber has received numerous awards including the Harvard Graduate Prize Fellowship, the Woodrow Wilson Independent Study Award and the Harvard Victorians award.

Virginia L. Warren, who expects to complete her Ph.D. this year, is appointed as an Instructor in Philosophy and specializes in 19th and 20th Century Continental Philosophy and Ethics. Warren graduated Summa Cum Laude from Vassar College and received her M.A. from the University of Michigan.
She has lectured at the University of California and California State University and was a Teaching Fellow at the University of Michigan.

The Religious Studies Department has added Gary Macy, Ph.D., to its faculty as Assistant Professor. Macy earned his B.A. and M.A. from Marquette University and his Ph.D. from the University of Cambridge. Macy was a Teaching and Research Assistant at Marquette University, lectured at the University of Notre Dame and has presented papers at the Philosophical Enquiry on Morality Convention and the Annual Convention of College Theology Society.
