LECTURE AT USD FOCUSES ON WORLD-WIDE HUMAN RIGHTS

Human rights law expert Karen Parker will speak on "Universal Declaration of Human Rights and What it means in the Americas" at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 25, in the University Center Forum at the University of San Diego.

Parker's work in international law involves consultations with governments, international bodies, Congress and the representation of issues before domestic and international tribunals.

Her fact-finding missions have taken her to El Salvador, Nicaragua, Grenada, Pakistan, USSR and Chili visiting presidents, military cartels, battlefields, and hospitals.

Parker's lecture is co-sponsored by the USD Faculty Social Issues Committee, Associated Students Speakers Bureau and Amnesty International.

The program is free and open to the public. For additional information, please call John Nunes at 260-4682.
