USD to Dedicate New School of Nursing Building, January 11 and 12

The dedication of the Muriel Marsh Hahn Pavilion, which houses the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing, will take place at the University of San Diego on January 11 and 12, the University has announced.

The two-day dedication ceremonies will include the presentation of the building to the University, tours of the building, presentation of distinguished service awards, conferral of honorary degrees, and an open forum on the future of nursing from a national perspective.

Receiving honorary degrees will be Rozella M. Schlotfeldt, R.N., Ph.D., F.A.A.N., Professor of Nursing, Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing, Case Western Reserve University, and Jessie M. Scott, R.N., D.Sc., F.A.A.N., Assistant Surgeon General, Director Division of Nursing, U.S. Public Health Service.

Ms. Schlotfeldt and Ms. Scott will also be major speakers at the open nursing forum.

The building was made possible by matching grants from Muriel Marsh Hahn and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The public is invited to the dedication at no charge.
