IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD UNIFICATION BRINGS ABOUT SINGLE TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

SAN DIEGO, Calif.----The University of San Diego has a single telephone number as of Monday. The unified system for the USD undergraduate colleges and School of Law replaces individual numbers for the various departments of the university. The master switchboard will now handle all incoming calls to the university. The new number is 291-6480. Extensions will serve the various offices and departments.

The unification of telephone service is another step in the unification which is uniting the schools at the academic level and creating a joint administration of the coordinate colleges, with the Very Rev. John E. Baer as coordinator of unification.
