BIOGRAPHICAL MATERIAL: CONGRESSMAN JACK KEMP

Congressman Jack Kemp, currently serving his fourth term from New York's 38th Congressional District, will be the keynote speaker at the Women's Crusade for a Common Sense Economy. The seminar/luncheon will be held at Town & Country Golden West Room, April 19 from 10 - 2.

Kemp is a member of the Appropriations Committee and the subcommittees on Defense and the District of Columbia. Legislative memberships have included the Education and Labor Committee and task forces on Revenue Sharing, Drug Abuse and Privacy. The Wall Street Journal declared Kemp's pending and widely-supported Jobs Creation Act "would be a tremendous spur to economic growth."

Born and educated in Los Angeles, Kemp is a graduate of Occidental College. He pursued graduate studies in political science and education while playing football for the San Diego Chargers. A co-founder of the AFL Players Association, Kemp served as Association president from 1965 to 1970. He played in six AFL All-Star games and won the AFL's Most Valuable Player Award in 1965.

Kemp's honors include the U. S. Jaycee's Distinguished Service Award, Buffalo Port Council's Maritime Trades Department Award "for outstanding dedication to the workingman and the labor movement in Buffalo and Erie County," and Buffalo Outstanding Citizen Awards for 1965 and 1974. He also has membership on the American Federation of Small Business "Honor Roll." Time Magazine has designated him as one of the top young leaders in America.

Kemp is married to the former Joanne Main. They have two sons and two daughters.
